

Transocean Ltd. Announces Closing of U.S. $625 Million of Secured Notes Due 2024

December 8, 2016

ZUG, SWITZERLAND - December 8, 2016 - Transocean Ltd. (NYSE: RIG) announced today that Transocean Proteus Limited, one of its wholly-owned indirect subsidiaries (the "Issuer"), has closed its previously announced offering of U.S. $625 million in aggregate principal amount of 6.25% senior secured notes due 2024 (the "Notes") pursuant to Rule 144A/Regulation S to eligible purchasers.

The Notes are guaranteed by Transocean Ltd., Transocean Inc. and a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary that owns the Deepwater Proteus. The Notes are secured by a lien on the Deepwater Proteus and certain other assets related to the rig.

The net proceeds of approximately $609 million from the Notes will be used primarily for the purpose of partially financing the construction of the Deepwater Proteus.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. The Notes offered may not be publicly offered, sold or advertised, directly or indirectly, in Switzerland. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any of the Notes in the United States, shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale of the Notes in any jurisdiction where such offering or sale would be unlawful and does not constitute an offering prospectus within the meaning of article 652a or article 1156 of the Swiss Code of Obligations. Any public offering of Transocean's securities in the United States will be made only by means of a prospectus that will contain detailed information about Transocean and its management, as well as financial statements. There shall not be any sale of the Notes in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of such jurisdiction.
