

Subscription Period Ends in Transocean's Compulsory Acquisition of Remaining Songa Offshore SE Shares

March 21, 2018

STEINHAUSEN, Switzerland, March 21, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Transocean Ltd. (NYSE:RIG) announced today that the subscription period for Transocean Ltd.'s and Transocean Inc.'s ("Transocean") compulsory acquisition of the remaining shares in Songa Offshore SE ("Songa Offshore") expired at 6:59 p.m. EDT (11:59 p.m. CET) on March 20, 2018.

In accordance with the terms and conditions of the compulsory acquisition, all remaining shares in Songa Offshore will be transferred to Transocean and the compulsory acquisition will start after the close of trading of Songa's shares on the Oslo Stock Exchange today, March 21, 2018. Transocean expects to settle the compulsory acquisition with the delivery of Consideration Shares, Exchangeable Bonds and cash consideration, as applicable, to Songa Offshore shareholders on or about March 28, 2018.

Transocean intends to pursue a delisting of the Songa Offshore shares from the Oslo Stock Exchange as soon as possible.

About Transocean

Transocean is a leading international provider of offshore contract drilling services for oil and gas wells. The company specializes in technically demanding sectors of the global offshore drilling business with a particular focus on deepwater and harsh environment drilling services, and believes that it operates one of the most versatile offshore drilling fleets in the world.

Transocean owns or has partial ownership interests in, and operates a fleet of 47 mobile offshore drilling units consisting of 27 ultra-deepwater floaters, 12 harsh environment floaters, two deepwater floaters and six midwater floaters. In addition, Transocean has two ultra-deepwater drillships under construction or under contract to be constructed. The company also operates two high-specification jackups that were under drilling contracts when the rigs were sold, and the company continues to operate these jackups until completion or novation of the drilling contracts.
