This Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO is filed by Transocean Inc., a Cayman Islands exempted company (the "Company"), and Transocean Ltd., a Swiss corporation (the "Guarantor"), and relates to the Company's offer to repurchase the 1.50% Series C Convertible Senior Notes due 2037 that were issued by the Company (the "Notes"), upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Indenture (as defined below), the Company Notice dated November 15, 2012 (the "Company Notice"), and the related offer materials filed as Exhibit (a)(1)(B) to this Schedule TO (which Company Notice and related offer materials, as amended or supplemented from time to time, collectively constitute the "Offer Materials").

The Notes were issued pursuant to the Indenture dated as of December 11, 2007 between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee (the "Trustee"), as supplemented by the Second Supplemental Indenture thereto dated as of December 11, 2007 between the Company and the Trustee and the Third Supplemental Indenture thereto dated as of December 18, 2008 among the Company, the Guarantor and the Trustee (as so supplemented, the "Indenture"). The Notes are convertible in certain circumstances into cash and a number of shares of the Guarantor determined as specified in the Indenture and the terms of the Notes. However, the Notes are not currently convertible because these conditions have not been satisfied. The current conversion rate of the Notes is 6.2905, equivalent to a conversion price per share of approximately $158.97. This conversion rate is subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain corporate events but not for accrued interest. In addition, if certain fundamental changes occur on or before December 20, 2012, the Company will in some cases increase the conversion rate for a holder electing to convert Notes in connection with such fundamental change.

The right of holders to surrender their Notes for repurchase by the Company (which we refer to as the "Offer") will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 14, 2012. This Schedule TO is intended to satisfy the disclosure requirements of Rule 13e-4(c)(2) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

ITEM 1 through 9.

The Company is the issuer of the Notes, and the Company is offering to purchase for cash all of the Notes if tendered by the holders under the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Indenture, the Notes and the Offer Materials. The Notes are convertible into shares of the Guarantor. The Company maintains its principal executive offices at 70 Harbour Drive, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands KY-1003. The Company's telephone number at that address is (713) 232-7500. As permitted by General Instruction F to Schedule TO, all of the information set forth in the Offer Materials is incorporated by reference into this Schedule TO.

ITEM 10. Financial Statements.

The Company believes that its financial condition is not material to a holder's decision with respect to the Offer because the consideration being paid to holders surrendering Notes consists solely of cash, the Offer is not subject to any financing conditions, the Offer applies to all outstanding Notes and the Guarantor is a public reporting company that files reports with the SEC electronically on EDGAR. The financial condition and results of operations of the Guarantor and its subsidiaries, including the Company, are reported electronically on EDGAR on a consolidated basis and include condensed consolidating information.

SUMMARY TERM SHEET

The following are answers to some of the questions that you may have about the Offer. To understand the Offer fully and for a more complete description of the terms of the Offer, we urge you to read carefully the remainder of this Company Notice and the accompanying Repurchase Notice because the information in this summary is not complete and those documents contain additional important information.

• Who is offering to purchase my Notes?

Transocean Inc., a Cayman Islands exempted company, is offering to purchase all outstanding 1.50% Series C Convertible Senior Notes due 2037 issued by it that are surrendered for purchase at the option of the holder thereof. As of November 14, 2012, there was approximately $1,722 million aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding.

• Why is the Company making the Offer?

Transocean is required to make the Offer under the terms of the Indenture and the Notes.

• How much is the Company offering to pay?

Under the terms of the Indenture and the Notes, the Company will pay, in cash, a Repurchase Price of $1,000 per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest up to but excluding the Repurchase Date with respect to any and all Notes validly surrendered for purchase and not withdrawn. However, because the Repurchase Date is after a record date and prior to the interest payment date, the interest will be paid on the regular interest payment date to the holder of record on the record date.

• What is the form of payment?

Under the terms of the Indenture, the Company must pay the Repurchase Price in cash with respect to any and all Notes validly surrendered for purchase and not withdrawn.

• Are the Notes convertible into shares?

The Notes are convertible in certain circumstances into cash and a number of shares of the Guarantor determined as specified in the Indenture and the terms of the Notes. However, the Notes are not currently convertible because these circumstances have not been satisfied. The current conversion rate of the Notes is 6.2905, equivalent to a conversion price per share of approximately $158.97. This conversion rate is subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain corporate events but not for accrued interest. In addition, if certain fundamental changes occur on or before December 20, 2012, the Company will in some cases increase the conversion rate for a holder electing to convert Notes in connection with such fundamental change.

• How can I determine the market value of the Notes?

There is no established reporting system or market for trading in the Notes. To the extent that the Notes are traded, prices of the Notes may fluctuate widely depending on trading volume, the balance between buy and sell orders, prevailing interest rates, the Guarantor's operating results and the market for similar securities. Holders are urged to obtain, to the extent available, current market quotations for the Notes prior to making any decision with respect to the Offer.

· What do the boards of directors of the Company and the Guarantor think of the Offer?

Neither the board of directors of the Company nor the board of directors of the Guarantor has made any recommendation as to whether you should surrender your Notes for purchase. You must make your own decision whether to surrender your Notes for purchase and, if so, the amount of Notes to surrender.

· When does the Offer expire?

The Offer expires at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 14, 2012. The Company does not plan to extend the period you have to accept the Offer unless required to do so by federal securities laws.

· What are the conditions to the Company's purchase of the Notes?

Provided that the Company's purchase of validly surrendered Notes is not unlawful, that purchase will not be subject to any other conditions.

· How do I surrender my Notes?

To surrender your Notes for purchase pursuant to the Offer, you must deliver the required documents to Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as paying agent, no later than 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 14, 2012, as described below. Holders that surrender through DTC need not submit a physical repurchase notice to the paying agent if such holders comply with the transmittal procedures of DTC.

- A holder whose Notes are held in certificated form must properly complete and execute the Repurchase Notice, and deliver the notice to the Paying Agent, with any other required documents and the certificates representing the Notes to be surrendered for purchase.
- A holder whose Notes are held by a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee must contact that nominee if that holder desires to surrender its Notes and instruct that nominee to surrender the Notes on the holder's behalf.
- A holder who is a DTC participant should surrender its Notes electronically through DTC's Automated Tenders over the Participant Terminal System ("ATOP"), subject to the terms and procedures of that system.

· If I surrender, when will I receive payment for my Notes?

The Company will accept for payment all validly surrendered Notes immediately upon expiration of the Offer. The Company will forward to the Paying Agent, prior to 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on December 17, 2012, an amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate Repurchase Price for all Notes that have been validly surrendered for purchase and not withdrawn, and the Paying Agent will promptly distribute the cash to the holders in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and the Notes. The Repurchase Price for any Notes that have been validly surrendered for purchase and not withdrawn will be paid promptly following the later of December 17, 2012 and the time of surrender of such Notes to the Paying Agent.

· Until what time can I withdraw previously surrendered Notes?

You can withdraw Notes previously surrendered for purchase at any time until 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 14, 2012.

· How do I withdraw previously surrendered Notes?

To withdraw previously surrendered Notes, you must deliver an executed written notice of withdrawal, or a facsimile of one, to the paying agent prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 14, 2012. Holders that withdraw through DTC need not submit a physical notice of withdrawal to the Paying Agent if such holders comply with the withdrawal procedures of DTC.

· Do I need to do anything if I do not wish to surrender my Notes for purchase?

No. If you do not deliver a properly completed and duly executed Repurchase Notice to the Paying Agent or surrender your Notes electronically through ATOP before the expiration of the Offer, the Company will not purchase your Notes and such Notes will remain outstanding subject to their existing terms.

· If I choose to surrender my Notes for purchase, do I have to surrender all of my Notes?

No. You may surrender all of your Notes, a portion of your Notes or none of your Notes for purchase. If you wish to surrender a portion of your Notes for purchase, however, you must surrender your Notes in a principal amount of $1,000 or in integral multiples of $1,000.

· If I do not surrender my Notes for purchase, will I continue to be able to exercise my conversion rights?

Yes. If you do not surrender your Notes for purchase, your conversion rights will not be affected. You will continue to have the right to convert the Notes in certain circumstances into cash and a number of shares of the Guarantor determined as specified in the Indenture and the terms of the Notes. However, the Notes are not currently convertible because these circumstances have not been satisfied.

· If I am a U.S. resident for U.S. federal income tax purposes, will I have to pay taxes if I surrender my Notes for purchase in the Offer?

The receipt of cash in exchange for Notes pursuant to the Offer will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. You should consult with your own tax advisor regarding the actual tax consequences to you.

Transocean Ltd.’s shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “RIG” and on the SIX Swiss Exchange under the symbol “RIGN.”

2. Information Concerning the Notes.

The Company issued the Notes under an Indenture dated as of December 11, 2007 between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee (the “Trustee”), as supplemented by the Second Supplemental Indenture thereto dated as of December 11, 2007 between the Company and the Trustee and the Third Supplemental Indenture thereto dated as of December 18, 2008 among the Company, the Guarantor and the Trustee (the “Third Supplemental Indenture”). The description of the Notes and the Indenture set forth under the caption “Description of the Notes” in the Company’s prospectus supplement dated December 5, 2007 to the prospectus dated December 3, 2007 and under the caption “Description of Debt Securities” in that prospectus is incorporated by reference herein. Under the terms of the Third Supplemental Indenture, the Guarantor fully and unconditionally guaranteed the obligations of the Company under the Indenture and agreed that, upon conversion of the Notes, holders of the Notes would receive shares of the Guarantor instead of ordinary shares of the Company.

2.1. The Company’s Obligation to Purchase the Notes.

Under the terms of the Notes, each holder of the Notes may require the Company to purchase all or a portion of the holder’s Notes validly surrendered for purchase and not withdrawn on December 14, 2012 (the “Repurchase Date”).

The Offer expires at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 14, 2012. The Company does not plan to extend the period holders of Notes have to accept the Offer unless required to do so by federal securities laws. If holders do not validly surrender their Notes before the expiration of the Offer, their Notes will remain outstanding subject to the existing terms of the Indenture and the Notes.

Assuming no Event of Default (as defined in the Indenture) has occurred and is continuing, the purchase by the Company of validly tendered Notes is not subject to any conditions other than the purchase being lawful. The Company may not repurchase the Notes if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

If any Notes remain outstanding following expiration of the Offer, the Company will become obligated to purchase any then-remaining Notes, at the option of the holders, in whole or in part, on December 15, 2017, December 15, 2022, December 15, 2027 and December 15, 2032, respectively, at purchase prices equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, such repurchase date.

2.2. Repurchase Price.

Under the terms of the Notes, the purchase price for the Notes in the Offer is equal to $1,000 per $1,000 principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest up to but excluding the Repurchase Date (the "Repurchase Price"). However, because the Repurchase Date is after a record date and prior to the interest payment date, the interest will be paid on the regular interest payment date to the holder of record on the record date. The Company will pay the Repurchase Price in cash with respect to any and all Notes validly surrendered for purchase and not withdrawn. The Company will accept Notes surrendered for purchase only in principal amounts equal to $1,000 or integral multiples thereof. If the Paying Agent holds cash sufficient to pay the Repurchase Price of the Notes tendered and not withdrawn on the business day following the Repurchase Date, then (a) such Notes will cease to be outstanding, (b) interest, if any, will cease to accrue on such Notes and (c) the rights of the holders of such Notes will terminate.

The Repurchase Price is based solely on the requirements of the Indenture and the Notes and bears no relationship to the market price of the Notes or of shares of the Guarantor. Accordingly, the Repurchase Price may be significantly higher or lower than the current market price of the Notes. Holders of Notes are urged to obtain the best available information as to potential current market prices of the Notes, to the extent available, and shares of the Guarantor before making a decision whether to surrender their Notes for purchase.

None of the Company, the Guarantor or their respective boards of directors or employees are making any recommendation to holders as to whether to surrender or refrain from surrendering Notes for purchase pursuant to this Company Notice. Each holder must make his or her own decision whether to surrender his or her Notes for purchase and, if so, the principal amount of Notes to surrender based on that holder's assessment of current market value of the Notes and the shares of the Guarantor and other relevant factors.

2.3. Conversion Rights of Notes.

The Notes are convertible in certain circumstances into cash and a number of shares of the Guarantor determined as specified in the Indenture and the terms of the Notes. The Notes are convertible under the following circumstances:

- during any calendar quarter commencing after March 31, 2008, and only during such calendar quarter, if for at least 20 trading days in the period of 30 consecutive trading days ending on the last trading day of the immediately preceding calendar quarter, the last reported sale price per share of the Guarantor is more than 130% of the conversion price per share of the Guarantor for the Notes on the last trading day of such preceding calendar quarter;
- prior to the stated maturity, during the five consecutive business-day period following any five consecutive trading-day period in which the average of the trading price per $1,000 principal amount of Notes was equal to or less than 98% of the average conversion value of the Notes during such five trading-day period;
- during specified periods upon the occurrence of specified distributions to holders of shares of the Guarantor or specified corporate transactions;
- if the Notes have been called for redemption, at any time prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the redemption date; or
- at any time on or after September 15, 2037 until the close of business on the business day prior to the stated maturity of the Notes.

As of November 14, 2012, these conditions had not been satisfied.

The current conversion rate of the Notes is 6.2905, equivalent to a conversion price per share of approximately $158.97. This conversion rate is subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain corporate events but not for accrued interest. In addition, if certain fundamental changes occur on or before December 20, 2012, the Company will in some cases increase the conversion rate for a holder electing to convert Notes in connection with such fundamental change.

Holders that do not surrender their Notes for purchase pursuant to the Offer will maintain the right to convert their Notes, subject to the terms, conditions and adjustments specified in the Indenture and in the Notes. Any Note as to which a Repurchase Notice has been given may be converted in accordance with the terms of the Indenture only if the applicable Repurchase Notice has been validly withdrawn before the expiration of the Offer, as described in Section 4 below.

2.4. Market for the Notes and the Shares of the Guarantor.

There is no established reporting system or trading market for trading in the Notes. To the extent that the Notes are traded, prices of the Notes may fluctuate widely depending on trading volume, the balance between buy and sell orders, prevailing interest rates, our operating results and the market for similar securities. The Notes have been deposited with the Trustee as custodian for DTC and registered in the name of a nominee of DTC in New York, New York for the accounts of participants in DTC.

Although the Notes are not currently convertible, the Notes are convertible in certain circumstances into cash and a number of shares of the Guarantor determined as specified in the Indenture and the terms of the Notes. The current conversion rate of the Notes is 6.2905, equivalent to a conversion price per share of approximately $158.97. This conversion rate is subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain corporate events but not for accrued interest. In addition, if certain fundamental changes occur on or before December 20, 2012, the Company will in some cases increase the conversion rate for a holder electing to convert Notes in connection with such fundamental change.

We urge you to obtain current market information for the Notes, to the extent available, and the shares of the Guarantor before making any decision to surrender your Notes pursuant to the Offer.

2.5. Redemption.

After the tenth business day after the Repurchase Date, the Company may redeem any Notes that remain outstanding, in whole or in part, for cash at a price equal to the principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest up to but excluding the redemption date.

2.6. Fundamental Change.

A holder may require the Company to repurchase for cash his or her Notes if there is a Fundamental Change (as defined in the Indenture) at a purchase price equal to the principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest up to but excluding the Fundamental Change Purchase Date (as defined in the Indenture).

2.7. Ranking.

The Notes are unsecured, unsubordinated debt of the Company. The Notes rank equal in right of payment with all of the Company's existing and future unsecured, unsubordinated debt. The guarantee of the Notes is the general unsecured obligation of the Guarantor and ranks equally with all existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated debt of the Guarantor. The Notes and the guarantee are effectively subordinated to all existing and future indebtedness of the subsidiaries of the Company and the Guarantor, respectively.

3. Procedures to be Followed by Holders Electing to Surrender Notes for Purchase.

Holders will not be entitled to receive the Repurchase Price for their Notes unless they validly surrender and do not withdraw the Notes before the expiration of the Offer. Only registered holders are authorized to surrender their Notes for purchase. Holders may surrender some or all of their Notes; however, any Notes surrendered must be in $1,000 principal amount or an integral multiple thereof.

If holders do not validly surrender their Notes before the expiration of the Offer, their Notes will remain outstanding subject to the terms of the Notes.

3.1. Method of Delivery.

The method of delivery of Notes, the related Repurchase Notice and all other required documents, including delivery through DTC and acceptance through ATOP, is at the election and risk of the person surrendering such Notes and delivering such Repurchase Notice and, except as expressly otherwise provided in the Repurchase Notice, delivery will be deemed made only when actually received by the Paying Agent. The date of any postmark or other indication of when a Note or the Repurchase Notice was sent will not be taken into account in determining whether such materials were timely received. If such delivery is by mail, it is suggested that holders use properly insured, registered mail with return receipt requested, and that holders mail the required documents sufficiently in advance of December 14, 2012 to permit delivery to the Paying Agent prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 14, 2012.

3.2. Repurchase Notice.

The Indenture requires that the Repurchase Notice contain:

- the certificate number of the Notes in certificated form being delivered for purchase (provided, that if the Notes are in the form of a Global Security (as defined in the Indenture), then a beneficial owner of a Note shall comply with the procedures of DTC applicable to the repurchase of a Global Security);
- the portion of the principal amount of Notes to be repurchased, which portion must be in principal amounts of $1,000 or integral multiples thereof; and

- a statement that the Notes are to be purchased by the Company as of the Repurchase Date pursuant to the terms and conditions specified under the caption “Repurchase by the Company at the Option of the Holder” of the Notes and in the Indenture.

3.3. Delivery of Notes.

Notes in Certificated Form. To receive the Repurchase Price, holders of Notes in certificated form must deliver to the Paying Agent the Notes to be surrendered for purchase and the accompanying Repurchase Notice, or a copy thereof, before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 14, 2012.

Notes Held Through a Custodian. A holder whose Notes are held by a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee must contact such nominee if such holder desires to surrender his or her Notes and instruct such nominee to surrender the Notes for purchase on the holder’s behalf.

Notes in Global Form. A holder who is a DTC participant may elect to surrender to the Company his or her beneficial interest in the Notes by:

- delivering to the Paying Agent’s account at DTC through DTC’s book-entry system his or her beneficial interest in the Notes before the expiration of the Offer; and
- electronically transmitting his or her acceptance through ATOP, subject to the terms and procedures of that system.

In surrendering through ATOP, the electronic instructions sent to DTC by the holder, and transmitted by DTC to the Paying Agent, will acknowledge, on behalf of DTC and the holder, receipt by the holder of and agreement to be bound by the Repurchase Notice.

Notes and the Repurchase Notice must be delivered to the Paying Agent to collect payment. Delivery of documents to DTC, the Company or the Guarantor does not constitute delivery to the Paying Agent.

HOLDERS THAT SURRENDER THROUGH DTC NEED NOT SUBMIT A PHYSICAL REPURCHASE NOTICE TO THE PAYING AGENT IF SUCH HOLDERS COMPLY WITH DTC’S TRANSMITTAL PROCEDURES.

4. Right of Withdrawal.

Notes surrendered for purchase may be withdrawn at any time before the expiration of the Offer. In order to withdraw Notes, holders must either comply with DTC’s withdrawal procedures or deliver to the Paying Agent written notice specifying:

- the certificate number of the withdrawn Notes (provided that if the Notes are in the form of a Global Security (as defined in the Indenture), then a beneficial owner of the Notes shall comply with the procedures of DTC applicable to the withdrawal of a Repurchase Notice);
- the principal amount of the Notes with respect to which such notice of withdrawal is being submitted; and
- the principal amount, if any, of such Notes which remains subject to the original Repurchase Notice and which have been or will be delivered for purchase by the Company.

The signature on the notice of withdrawal must be guaranteed by an Eligible Guarantor Institution (as defined in Rule 17Ad-15 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”)), unless such Notes have been surrendered for purchase for the account of an Eligible Guarantor Institution. Any properly withdrawn Notes will be deemed not validly surrendered for purposes of the Offer. Notes withdrawn from the Offer may be resurrendered by following the surrender procedures described above.

HOLDERS THAT WITHDRAW THROUGH DTC NEED NOT SUBMIT A PHYSICAL NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL TO THE PAYING AGENT IF SUCH HOLDERS COMPLY WITH DTC’S WITHDRAWAL PROCEDURES.

5. Payment for Surrendered Notes.

The Company will forward to the Paying Agent, before 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on December 17, 2012, the appropriate amount of cash required to pay the Repurchase Price for the Notes validly surrendered for purchase and not withdrawn, and the Paying Agent will promptly distribute the cash to the holders. The Repurchase Price for any Notes that have been validly surrendered for purchase and not withdrawn will be paid promptly following the later of December 17, 2012 and the time of surrender of such Notes to the Paying Agent. Each holder of a beneficial interest in the Notes that has properly delivered such beneficial interest for purchase by the Company through the DTC and not validly withdrawn such delivery before the expiration of the Offer will receive the Repurchase Price promptly after such distribution.

The total amount of funds required by the Company to purchase all of the Notes is approximately $1,722 million (assuming all of the Notes are validly surrendered for purchase and accepted for payment). In the event any Notes are surrendered and accepted for payment, the Company intends to use available cash of it and its affiliates to pay the Repurchase Price.

6. Notes Acquired.

Any Notes that are purchased by the Company pursuant to the Offer will be canceled by the Trustee, pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

7. Plans or Proposals of the Guarantor.

Except as described or incorporated by reference in this document, the Guarantor presently has no plans that relate to or would result in:

- (1) any extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving any of its subsidiaries;
- (2) any repurchase, sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Guarantor or any of its subsidiaries;
- (3) any material change in the present dividend rate or policy, or indebtedness or capitalization of the Guarantor;
- (4) any change in the present board of directors or management of the Guarantor, including, but not limited to, any plans or proposals to change the number or the term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board or to change any material term of the employment contract of any executive officer of the Guarantor;
- (5) any other material change in the Guarantor's corporate structure or business;
- (6) any class of equity security of the Guarantor to be delisted from a national securities exchange or cease to be authorized to be quoted in an automated quotation system operated by a national securities association;
- (7) any class of equity security of the Guarantor becoming eligible for termination of registration under Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;
- (8) the suspension of the Guarantor's obligation to file reports under Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act;
- (9) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Guarantor, or the disposition of securities of the Guarantor; or
- (10) any changes in the Guarantor's articles of incorporation or organizational regulations or its other governing instruments or other actions that could impede the acquisition of control of the Guarantor.

8. Interests of the Directors, Executive Officers and Affiliates of the Company and the Guarantor in the Notes.

To the knowledge of the Company and the Guarantor:

- none of the Company, the Guarantor or their respective executive officers, directors, subsidiaries or other affiliates has any beneficial interest in the Notes;
- none of the officers or directors of the subsidiaries of the Company or the Guarantor has any beneficial interest in the Notes;
- neither the Company nor the Guarantor will purchase any Notes from such persons; and
- during the 60 days preceding the Repurchase Date, neither the Company, the Guarantor nor, to their knowledge, any of their respective executive officers, directors or affiliates have engaged in any transactions in the Notes.

A list of the directors and executive officers of each of the Company and the Guarantor is attached to this Company Notice as Annex A.

9. Purchases of Notes by the Company, the Guarantor and their Affiliates.

Each of the Company, the Guarantor and their respective affiliates, including their respective executive officers and directors, are prohibited under applicable federal securities laws from purchasing Notes (or the right to purchase Notes) other than through the Offer until at least the tenth business day after the Repurchase Date. Following that time, if any Notes remain outstanding, Company, the Guarantor and their respective affiliates may purchase Notes in the open market, in private transactions, through a subsequent tender offer or otherwise, any of which may be consummated at purchase prices higher or lower than the Repurchase Price to be paid pursuant to the Offer. Any decision to purchase Notes after the Offer, if any, will depend upon many factors, including the market price of the Notes, the amount of Notes surrendered for purchase pursuant to the Offer, the market price of the shares of the Guarantor, our business and financial position and general economic and market conditions.

On or after the tenth business day after the Repurchase Date, the Company may redeem any Notes that remain outstanding, in whole or in part, for cash at a price equal to the principal amount plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the redemption date.

10. Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations.

The following discussion is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the surrender of Notes for purchase pursuant to the Offer. This discussion does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax consequences of the Offer. This summary is based upon laws, regulations, rulings and decisions currently in effect, all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations at any time, possibly with retroactive effect. Moreover, this summary applies only to holders who hold Notes as "capital assets" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and does not purport to deal with persons subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax law, such as financial institutions, insurance companies, regulated investment companies, tax exempt investors, dealers in securities and currencies, U.S. expatriates or former long-term residents, persons holding Notes as a position in a "straddle," "hedge," "conversion" or other integrated transaction for tax purposes, U.S. Holders (as defined below) whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, S corporations and other pass-through entities (including partnerships), traders in securities who elect the mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities, holders that are subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code, personal holding companies, and real estate investment trusts. Further, this discussion does not address the consequences under U.S. tax laws (other than U.S. federal income tax laws) or the laws of any U.S. state or locality or any foreign jurisdiction.

If a partnership (including an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a beneficial owner of Notes, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partners of partnerships that are beneficial owners of Notes should consult their own tax advisors about the U.S. federal income tax consequences of surrendering Notes pursuant to the Offer.

THIS SUMMARY IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO YOU OF SURRENDERING NOTES FOR PURCHASE PURSUANT TO THE OFFER. WE URGE YOU TO CONSULT A TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE PARTICULAR FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND NON-U.S. TAX CONSEQUENCES OF SURRENDERING NOTES FOR PURCHASE PURSUANT TO THE OFFER IN LIGHT OF YOUR OWN SITUATION.

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of Notes that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes: a citizen or resident of the United States; a corporation (or other entity that is taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof including the District of Columbia; an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source; or a trust if (i) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary jurisdiction over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have authority to control all of its substantial decisions or (ii) the trust has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person. As used herein, the term “Non-U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of Notes that is an individual, corporation, estate or trust that is not a U.S. Holder.

U.S. Holders.

Sale of Notes Pursuant to the Offer. A U.S. Holder who receives cash in exchange for Notes pursuant to the Offer will recognize taxable gain or loss equal to the difference between (a) the amount of cash received (less amounts that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest, which will be taxed as ordinary interest income if such interest has not been previously included in income) and (b) the U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in the Notes surrendered. A U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in the Notes will generally equal the U.S. Holder’s cost of the Notes increased by any accrued market discount that was previously included in income, or will be included in income this year, by such U.S. Holder and reduced by the amount of any amortizable bond premium previously deducted by the U.S. Holder with respect to such Notes. Subject to the market discount rules discussed below, such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder held the Notes for more than one year. Long-term capital gain recognized by a non-corporate U.S. Holder generally is subject to U.S. taxation at a maximum rate of 15%. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

A U.S. Holder who acquired Notes at a market discount generally will be required to treat any gain recognized upon the purchase of its Notes pursuant to the Offer as ordinary income rather than capital gain to the extent of the accrued market discount, unless the U.S. holder elected to include market discount in income as it accrued. Subject to a de minimis exception, “market discount” equals the excess of the stated redemption price at a maturity of the Notes over the U.S. Holder’s initial tax basis in the Notes. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the portion of any gain that would be taxable as ordinary income under the market discount rules.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding. Under the backup withholding provisions of the Code, a U.S. Holder who surrenders Notes for purchase will generally be subject to backup withholding at the rate of 28% of any gross payment unless such holder (i) is an exempt recipient and, when required, establishes this fact or (ii) provides a certified Taxpayer Identification Number (Employer Identification Number or Social Security Number). A U.S. Holder who provides a certified Taxpayer Identification Number may nevertheless be subject to backup withholding on the portion of the payment representing accrued interest, if the Company has been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) that such U.S. Holder is currently subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends or if such U.S. Holder fails to certify to the Company that such U.S. Holder has not been so notified. U.S. Holders electing to surrender Notes should complete an IRS Form W-9 and attach it to the Notes being surrendered. If you are a U.S. Holder exempt from backup withholding under the Code, please provide your Taxpayer Identification Number and so indicate on the Form W-9.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or a credit against the U.S. Holder’s U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the holder timely furnishes certain required information to the IRS.

Non-U.S. Holders.

Sale of Notes Pursuant to the Offer. A Non-U.S. Holder who receives cash in exchange for Notes pursuant to the Offer will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (a) the amount of cash received (less amounts that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest, which will be taxed as ordinary interest income if such interest has not been previously included in income) and (b) the U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in the Notes surrendered. Subject to the discussion of amounts attributable to interest, any gain recognized on the surrender of Notes pursuant to the Offer generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax, unless:

- the gain is effectively connected with the conduct by such Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States and, if a tax treaty applies, is attributable to a permanent establishment or a fixed base in the United States,
- such Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of disposition and certain other conditions are met, or
- such Non-U.S. Holder does not establish an exemption from backup withholding, as discussed in “—Information Reporting and Backup Withholding,” below.

Subject to the discussion in “—Information Reporting and Backup Withholding,” below, a Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on amounts attributable to accrued but unpaid interest not previously included in income.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding. If a Non-U.S. Holder holds Notes through the non-U.S. office of a non-U.S. broker or financial institution, backup withholding and information reporting generally will not be required. Information reporting, and possibly backup withholding, may apply if the Notes are held by a non-U.S. Holder through a U.S. broker or financial institution or the U.S. office of a non-U.S. broker or financial institution and the non-U.S. Holder fails to provide appropriate information (on IRS Form W-8BEN or other applicable form). Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors with respect to the application of U.S. information reporting and backup withholding rules to the disposition of Notes pursuant to the Offer.

Transocean Ltd. Announces Repurchase Offer for 1.50% Series C Convertible Senior Notes Due 2037 of Transocean Inc.

ZUG, SWITZERLAND, Nov 15, 2012 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) —

Transocean Ltd. (NYSE: RIG) (SIX: RIGN) today announced that holders of the 1.50% Series C Convertible Senior Notes due 2037 of Transocean Inc., its wholly-owned subsidiary, have the option to require Transocean Inc. to repurchase all or any part of such holders' notes on December 14, 2012.

The repurchase price will be $1,000 in cash plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the repurchase date, per $1,000 principal amount. The interest will be paid on the regular interest payment date to the holder of record as of the record date. If all outstanding notes are surrendered for repurchase, the aggregate repurchase price will be approximately $1,722 million, excluding any required payment of interest on the regular interest payment date. Transocean Inc. intends to fund the repurchase price by using available cash.

Holders may exercise their option to require Transocean Inc. to repurchase their notes by delivering a repurchase notice to Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, the paying agent, before the expiration of the offer at 5:00 p.m., EST, on December 14, 2012.

The notes are convertible in certain circumstances into cash and a number of shares of Transocean Ltd. determined as specified in the notes and the related indenture. However, the notes are not currently convertible because those circumstances have not been satisfied.

Transocean plans to file a Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") later today. Transocean Inc. will make available to noteholders, through the Depository Trust Company, documents specifying the terms, conditions and procedures for surrendering and withdrawing notes for repurchase. Noteholders are encouraged to read these documents carefully before deciding to exercise their option to require Transocean Inc. to repurchase their notes as these documents contain important information regarding the details of Transocean Inc.'s obligation to repurchase the notes. Holders of the notes and other interested parties may obtain a free copy of these statements and other relevant documents at the SEC's website, www.sec.gov, or from Transocean Inc., c/o Transocean Offshore Deepwater Drilling Inc., at 4 Greenway Plaza, Houston, Texas 77046, Attn: Investor Relations.
