FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CARL C. ICAHN ISSUES OPEN LETTER TO TRANSOCEAN SHAREHOLDERS

New York, New York, May 2, 2013: Carl C. Icahn today delivered the following open letter to shareholders of Transocean Ltd.

Dear Fellow Transocean Shareholders:

Transocean has at last acknowledged the magnitude of the cost cutting opportunity at the Company: in the initial phase, at least $300 million of annualized savings. However, the more important issue at this point – how will the $300 million in annualized savings impact shareholders? If additional capital is tied up in long dated low return capital projects, we do not believe shareholders will ever see the benefit. We continue to believe that even without the $300 million annualized savings, a $4.00 dividend is entirely feasible, but obviously this $300 million makes it even more so.

Despite recently being proved wrong on their share performance claims and being forced to revise their proxy materials, Transocean is still making, in our view, unsupported claims in their communications with shareholders. The Company is claiming that they “have remained committed to creating shareholder value...” and that they “have been successful in this regard.” Yet for a shareholder who purchased Transocean stock in August of 2005 around the time Seadrill was publicly listed, returns have been negative. In fact, in the 1, 3, and 5 year periods, as well as the pre-Macondo 3 and 5 year periods, there are two things in common – Mike Talbert, Robert Sprague and Thomas Cason were leading the Board and shareholder returns were below the industry average. Despite their “commitment”, we believe this Board has overseen shareholder underperformance and value destruction for years. This Board has made no effort, in our view, to explain to shareholders why the Company has underperformed over the years, or what will be done differently in the future to reverse the Company’s consistent pattern of underperformance. Instead of explaining how the future will differ from the past, this Board is asking shareholders to continue supporting the same directors that led the Company during this disastrous period, reminding us of Albert Einstein, who once said, “The definition of insanity is doing the same thing over and over again and expecting different results.”

In our view, the Company is asking shareholders to blindly support and entrench directors regardless of performance. We challenge Transocean to acknowledge past mistakes, and finally and fully explain why shareholders should support directors responsible for those mistakes. Furthermore, we would like to understand the “rigorous, months-long process of careful evaluation” the Board claims to have undergone in assessing its nominations, only to re-nominate Chairman Talbert who has presided over almost a decade of value destruction and underperformance. How bad do shareholder returns have to be before this Board realizes that the leadership has failed and change is required to drive performance?

Transocean has also claimed that under certain circumstances they would have considered board nominees proposed by Icahn and may have even endorsed their nomination. In our view, this statement is completely disingenuous. Prior to nominating directors, we repeatedly told the Company that we would like to see change at the board level, but the Company chose not to engage in any meaningful discussions with us regarding new board members. Furthermore, if Transocean was even remotely serious about considering shareholder proposed nominees, wouldn’t it make sense to meet with and interview our nominees to consider their qualifications? Not one director has made any effort to speak with any of our nominees. We believe that these are the actions of an entrenched board circling the wagons to protect their own jobs despite years of shareholder underperformance.

Transocean has described their incumbent directors as “world-class”, which to us is an utterly meaningless designation. Given Transocean’s underperformance, we believe the Board should be apologizing to shareholders and explaining how the future will differ from the past, not anointing themselves with self-congratulatory superlatives. Although the Board does not appear to be interested in explaining how the future will differ from the past, later this month shareholders will have the opportunity to elect new directors to the Board of Transocean ensuring that the Company’s future Board is different than today’s.

WE URGE SHAREHOLDERS TO VOTE AT THE 2013 TRANSOCEAN ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING FOR THE ICAHN PROPOSAL TO INCREASE THE DIVIDEND AT TRANSOCEAN TO $4.00 PER SHARE AND FOR THE ICAHN PROPOSAL TO ELECT JOSE MARIA ALAPONT, JOHN J. LIPINSKI AND SAMUEL MERKSAMER TO THE TRANSOCEAN BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Very truly yours,

Carl C. Icahn
